November 2012

Welcome to my first Childminding Newsletter, where I hope to keep parents informed about my service and my plans for future activities, holiday dates and changes.

I would very much welcome your input, if you have any ideas that you wish to put forward it would be greatly received.

Thank you for taking the time to read this.

Sharon

one today

Little Giggles celebrated its first Birthday on the 8th of November. All the children enjoyed celebrating the day and I would like to take this opportunity to thank all the families for making it a very special and enjoyable year.

Halloween Party

Some local childminders and I organised a Halloween party for the kids and it was great success. Thanks to all who attended and dressed up.

We are also arranging a Christmas Party on the 22nd December at Bellfield Community Centre. Time still to be confirmed.

Inspection

As everybody was probably aware, Little Giggles had its first inspection this month from the Care Inspectorate, as soon as the results come through I will let everybody know. The inspection went brilliantly and I got a "very good" in all areas. So over the moon with this and can't wait for written report

Training

I have just completed another course, this time in food hygiene, which I am pleased to inform you that I passed. In January I hope to complete further Infection control training.

HOLIDAY DATES

Little Giggles will be on holiday from the 24th December until the 7th of January inclusive.
